CAREERS ACROSS THE TRUST

 @MES CAREERS DEPT
 @CAREERSMECE

Despite the continuing COVID-19 restrictions, there has still been a wealth of exciting Careers-related activities taking place across the Trust and there are many more to come...

LIVE Q&A SESSIONS WITH INDUSTRY EXPERTS

 The amazing Drama Department at MES have gone the extra mile during the pandemic to inspire the next generation of actors and industry professionals! The Department have organised a series of live Q&A sessions for students, with actors such as Robert Emms (Chernobyl, Jurassic World), Nonso Anozie (Game of Thrones, Cinderella), and Sarah Paul (Eastenders, Doctors). The sessions provided a unique insight into the world of performing arts and all of the star guests spoke highly of the students' engagement.

A-Z OF CAREERS

 To celebrate National Careers Week and Creative Careers Week this month, students across the Trust have been encountering a new career each day through our A-Z of Careers! The initiative aims to raise awareness of opportunities and industries which students may not be aware of. Tutors have been sharing summaries of each career and students have enjoyed investigating the careers further through links shared on our Twitter - @MESCareersDept.

MES YEAR 11 EMPLOYER MOCK INTERVIEWS

 During the week commencing Monday 22 February, Year 11 students at MES took part in an exciting programme of employability activities! Students engaged with PSMSC sessions on topics such as networking and personal branding and participated in virtual employer-led mock interviews, before receiving feedback on their CVs from industry professionals. Thank you to our wonderful employer contacts for making this event such a success!

MES PE STAFF CAREER PROFILES

 MES' fantastic PE Department have launched their teacher career profile series, in which members of the PE team discuss their varied career journeys and experiences with students. So far, Miss Avery and Miss Chapman have shared their fascinating experiences and insights, demonstrating how embracing opportunities such as volunteering and working abroad can help to develop and demonstrate a range of skills and attributes. Check out the new PE Twitter account @MES_PE_Dept to take a look!

#CAREERS WEEK 4

 From 22-26 March we are celebrating #Careers Week 4!

As part of Women's History Month, students will be discovering inspirational female figures from careers linked to subjects across the curriculum! Staff will be sharing presentations about these stereotype-challenging individuals during lessons throughout the week.
